Trans-Mediterranean art expo gets off to running start in Achrafieh

BEIRUT: "Arab Artists Between Italy and the Mediterranean," the high-profile trans-Mediterranean exhibition currently on display at Achrafieh's Villa Audi, had its gala opening on Friday evening. A few hundred members of the diplomatic, business and cultural communities turned out for the event, not least Italian Ambassador Gabriele Checchia, Italian Cultural Institute Director Ennio Troili, and home-grown banker and patron of the arts Raymond Audi. The show runs until April 25.
